

Steward Learning Series

Sept 26th - Sept 27th 2014

CUPE Local 79 office, St Patrick Street, Toronto

I would like to thank the Union for allowing me to attend further training as part of the Steward Learning Series held at the CUPE Local 79 office located on St Patrick Street in Toronto.

The modules I covered were in relation to representing members in front of management, creating accommodation friendly workplaces and what stewards need to about health & safety.

It was a great opportunity to network with other stewards, health & safety reps and worker co-chairs. It was interesting to hear similarities in the challenges faced by local with 22,000 inside workers. I was also given some good resources that I will be able to refer to in the future.

I look forward to continuing to build my skills and knowledge and use it to assist our members when they need it.
